LAWS OF ALABAMA.

No. 1.] AN ACT

To amend the Revenue Laws of this State.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That the following rules, as to the taxation of persons and property, are hereby established, to-wit:

Rules of taxation.

1. All lands subject to taxation must be taxed in proportion to their value.

2. Land belonging to citizens of the Confederate States residing out of the State, cannot be taxed higher than land belonging to persons residing therein.

3. No tax can be imposed on land, the property of the Confederate States.

4. All navigable waters within the State are to remain forever public highways, free to the citizens of the State, and of the Confederate States, without any tax, impost, or toll thereon, imposed by the State.

5. The following persons and property are exempt from taxation:

6. All property belonging to the State, or any county thereof, or the State bank, or its branches.

7. All property of the Confederate States.

8. All property of literary, scientific and benevolent institutions, actually used for the purposes for which such institutions were created; not exempting, however, any of such property when invested in stocks, or employed in any other than the regular business of such institutions.

9. Houses of religious worship, and their appurtenances.

10. Places, and monuments of the dead, and implements of burial.

11. Agricultural and horticultural instruments, implements, vehicles and utensils, when kept for use,

12. The property of revolutionary soldiers and their widows, to the value of one thousand dollars.

13. The property of soldiers who served in the war of 1812, those who served in the Mexican war, those who served in the Florida war, and those now in, or who may hereafter be in the military service of, the Confederate States, or who shall, at the time of assessment, have received an honorable discharge from such service, and of the widows of all such, property to the value of one thousand dollars.

14. All insane persons, and their property, to the value of one thousand dollars.

Subjects & rates of taxation.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That taxes are to be assessed by the assessor in each county on, and from, the following subjects, and at the following rates, to-wit :

Poll.

1. On every white male inhabitant between the ages of twenty-one and sixty, except those in the military service of the Confederate States, seventy-five cents.

Male free negroes.

2. On every male free negro, between twenty-one and fifty years of age, five dollars.

Female free negroes.

3. On every female free negro, between twenty-one and forty-five years of age, three dollars.

Real estate.

4. On all real estate, to be estimated at its real value in money, and not at forced sale, according to the best judgment the assessor can form by information, inspection, or otherwise, taking into consideration its location, whether in a town, city, or the country, its proximity to local advantages, its quality of soil, growth of timber, mines, minerals, quarries, fossils and improvements, excepting such as are herein separately specified and taxed, for each hundred dollars of the value thereof, and at that rate, twenty-five cents.

Slaves, except mechanics.

5. All slaves, except mechanics, tanners, shoe makers, or of some other trade, craft or occupation, which renders them of extra value, actually engaged in their trade, or those who, from unsoundness or other disability, are of less value than ordinary slaves of like age, shall be assessed as follows :

1	On each slave under 5 years of age,	50 cents.
2	“ “ “ between 5 & 10 “	75 “
3	“ “ “ “ 10 & 15 “	150 “
4	“ “ “ “ 15 & 30 “	200 “
5	“ “ “ “ 30 & 40 “	150 “
6	“ “ “ “ 40 & 50 “	100 “
7	“ “ “ “ 50 & 60 “	40 “

Mechanics, and others of extra value, actually engaged in their trade, and those who, from unsoundness or disability, are of less value than slaves of like age, shall be valued at whatever prices the assessors, from the best information to be obtained by them, may adjudge them to be worth; and upon such valuation there shall be assessed a tax of one-fourth of one per cent. Mechanics.

6. There is also to be assessed and collected, as a separate fund to pay for slaves executed for capital crimes, on each slave under ten years of age, one cent; and on each over ten, and under sixty years, two cents. Slave fund.

7. On all passes, canals, channels, and property of the like kind, estimated in the same manner as mills, &c., on each hundred dollars of the real value of the property, twenty-five cents. Passes, canals, channels, &c.

8. On all capital employed by agent, or otherwise, in the way of loan, or trading in paper, at not more than the legal rate of interest, or in the regular exchange business, in or during the tax year ending on last day of February preceding the assessment, on each hundred dollars thereof, and at that rate, thirty-three and one-third cents. Capital or money at legal interest.

9. On all money and debts purposely kept at interest, whether lent to, or in the hands of, persons, corporations, or companies, in or out of the State, whether the evidence of the debt is annually renewed or not, or whether running to maturity or past due, on which tax is not paid in some other form or manner to the State annually, there shall be assessed and paid, for each hundred dollars, thirty-three and one-third cents. Money and debts at interest

10. On all crops, or the proceeds thereof, loaned or kept at interest, there shall be levied and collected a tax of thirty-three and one third cents on every hundred dollars so loaned or kept at interest. Crops loaned or kept at interest.

11. On all money hoarded there shall be assessed and collected, on every hundred dollars, one dollar; and under the term hoarded shall be embraced all money withheld from circulation, as well as all money de- Money hoarded posited out of the State, money lent out of the State at a less rate of interest than five per cent per annum, and all money on hand: Provided, that money kept on hand exclusively to purchase family supplies, not to exceed the amount necessary for one year, shall not be considered as money hoarded.

Capital or money at greater than legal interest.

12. On all capital employed, by agent or otherwise, in or during such year, in the way of loan or dealing in paper, at a greater rate than the legal rate of interest, on each hundred dollars, and at that rate, one dollar; and all bills, notes, checks, certificates of deposit, or other issues, credits of any corporation, company, partnership, or individual, either in or out of the State, used or employed in the way of loan, dealing in paper, or in a regular exchange business, is regarded as capital under this section, and must be assessed as if gold or silver was used or employed.

Jewelry, plate,
furniture, &c

13. On each hundred dollars worth, and at that rate, of all jewelry, plate, household furniture, ornaments, whether kept for use, sale, or otherwise, over the value of two hundred dollars, except family portraits, fifty cents.

Vehicles.

14. On all vehicles kept for use, and not exempt from taxation, on each hundred dollars of the value, and at that rate, fifty cents.

Neat cattle.

15. On each head of neat cattle, over twenty-five head, one cent.

Horses & mules.

16. On all horses or mules kept principally for the saddle or harness, stud horses and jacks, on every hundred dollars of the value, and at that rate, one dollar.

Race horses.

17. On all horses which, in or during the tax year preceding the assessment, have been entered, trained or run, five dollars.

Capital stock of corporations.

18. On all corporations created under any law of this State, except rail roads, and not exempt from taxation, on each hundred dollars of their capital stock actually paid in, and belonging to persons not exempt from taxation, fifty cents; but such corporation is exempt from tax (if it pays a tax) upon its separate property, equal, at its cost value, to the amount of such capital stock, and so pro rata in the proportion which its property, separately taxed, bears to the amount paid of its capital stock.

Auction sales.

19. On the gross amount of all auction sales made in or during the tax year preceding the assessment, except those made by executors, administrators and guardians, as such, by order of court, or under legal process, and under any deed, will, or mortgage, on every hundred dollars, and at that rate, ten dollars; except on cargo sales of imported goods, which shall be two dollars on every hundred dollars.

20. On the gross amount of premiums (after deducting therefrom all return premiums) received from their business in this State, during such tax year, by any insurance company not chartered by this State, and doing business herein, by agent or otherwise, on every hundred dollars, and at that rate, two dollars: one-half of which goes to the county where the agency is located or doing business, and the other half to the State. Insurance premiums.

21. On every pack, or part of a pack of playing cards sold, by wholesale or retail, or otherwise disposed of or used, during such tax year, one dollar. Playing cards.

22. On every article, piece of property, or sum of money, put up or disposed of by raffle, in such tax year, on each hundred dollars of the amount at which the same is put up, and at that rate, ten dollars; to be assessed against the person in possession of the house in which the raffle is had; and if no house, then against the person making up such raffle, or the owner of the article or property. Raffles.

23. On each gold watch kept for use in such tax year, by male or female, one dollar. Gold watches.

24. On every gold safety, vest, or fob chain, silver watch, or clock, kept for use in such tax year, fifty cents. Gold chains, silver watches and clocks.

25. On all lawyers, surgeons, physicians, and dentists, who have been three years at the practice, ten dollars; or at their option, on each hundred dollars of their income derived from such profession, during such tax year, and at that rate, fifty cents. Professional incomes.

26. On every legacy, where letters testamentary have not been taken out in this State, received by any person other than the child, adopted child, grand-child, brother, sister, father, mother, husband or wife, and on all property given by deed, or otherwise, to any such person, on each hundred dollars of the amount or value thereof, and at that rate, to be assessed to the beneficiary, guardian, trustee, or legal representative, five dollars. Legacies.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That there shall be assessed and collected a tax of five per cent. upon all net profits derived during the year ending on the last day Net profits of sales.

of February, 1863, from the sale, whether at auction or by private sale, of all liquors, groceries, breadstuffs, meats, salt, grains, provisions, leather, hides, shoes, tobacco, cotton, horses, mules, negroes, beef cattle, hogs, bagging, rope, guns, pistols, powder, shot, lead, percussion caps, candles, cigars, jewelry, gold and silver plate, and plate of other sorts, snuff, fruit, confectioneries, drugs, medicines, dye-stuffs, hardware, queensware, earthenware, cutlery, and all other kinds of merchandize or commodities sold during said year, which may have been obtained by purchase or barter, whether such purchase or barter was made before or after the first day of March, 1862; and on each free bank of this State, including the Savings Bank of Mobile, on each hundred dollars of its stock there shall be assessed and collected a sum equal to thrice the amount of the tax levied on land. There shall also be assessed and collected a tax of five per cent. on the net profits of agents, brokers, or factors for the purchase or sale of cotton or other articles of merchandize, either on domestic or foreign account; also, on commissions of auction sales of any of the articles herein enumerated: and whenever goods, wares, merchandize, or property of any kind enumerated in this section, is the property of non-residents of this State, and sold at auction in this State, the same shall be subject to a tax of two per cent.; and the auctioneer selling such goods shall be held liable to pay the same under the penalties herein prescribed in other cases. And in estimating the profits under this section, it shall be done in reference to the original price paid to the producer or manufacturer, or paid by the importer, adding in all cases the expense of transportation, insurance, exchange, and all other bona fide expenses.

incomes.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That there shall be assessed and collected a tax of five per cent. on the net profits derived during the year ending on the last day of February, 1863, from all rail roads, steam boats, omnibuses, stage coaches, hacks, warehouses, drays, saw, grist, and other mills, distilleries, breweries, tanneries, foundries, forges, hotels, restaurants, establishments for manufacturing or repairing shoes, harness, hats, carriages, wagons, guns, pistols, pikes, bowie knives, establishments for manufacturing iron, woolen and cotton goods, cotton yarns, or for carding and spinning woo or cotton, mining, quarrying, working marble, and all other kinds of manufacturing establishments, presses for compressing cotton, printing establishments, cotton pickeries, wharves, toll bridges, ferries, and livery stables; also a tax of five per cent. upon the net profits realized by any express company, telegraph and gas companies, brokers and dealers in exchange.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That in estimating the net profits under the preceding section, it shall be done in reference to the amount of capital actually invested and necessarily employed, and shall include the profits on sales and re-sales, made directly or indirectly, either in or out of this State.

How net profits are to be estimated.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That no tax shall be assessed and collected upon the capital employed in any business the net profits of which are taxed by any law of this State, except on capital employed in tanneries, and establishments for manufacturing woolen or cotton goods, cotton yarns, or in the manufacture and sale of shoes, or invested in steam boats.

When net profits are taxed, no tax on the capital.

Exception.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That upon all notes or bills, drafts, orders, checks, certificates of deposit, or paper of any kind or form, heretofore emitted without the authority of the law of Alabama, by and on behalf of, or for the benefit of any resident of this State, or on the behalf of, or for the benefit of any corporation created by or under any law of this State, or doing business in this State, or on behalf of, or for the benefit of any individual or partnership in this State, to answer the purposes of money, or for circulation as money or change bills, whether made or emitted in or out of the State, there shall be assessed and collected on the amount of all such notes, bills, drafts, orders, checks, certificates of deposit, or paper money of any kind or form, so emitted or put into circulation, a tax of two and one-half per cent. for the tax year ending on the last day of February, 1863; and for each tax year thereafter, there shall be assessed and collected a tax of fifteen per cent. upon such amount as may be outstanding and unredeemed at the commencement of such tax year: Provided, however, That every kind of paper referred to or mentioned above in this section, emitted by any court of county commissioners, or any municipal corporation in this State, shall be exempt from taxation.

Change bills or Shipplasters for year to March 1863.

For each year thereafter.

Proviso as to those issued by Commissioners' Courts and Municipal Corporations.

Repeal of certain penalties.

Proviso.

Cotton planted and gathered hereafter.

Proviso.

Profits under Confederate contract.

Wages or salaries of Confederate employees.

Written statements under oath.

SEC. 8. Be it further enacted, That the establishment of the rates of taxation in the preceding section shall be a repeal of all penalties and penal laws as to every kind and form of paper in said section embraced, which has heretofore been made and emitted, but shall not be a repeal of any existing law as to any such paper hereafter made and emitted, or which may be hereafter re-issued: Provided, The benefits of this section shall not apply to any party who fails, on presentation, to redeem any kind or form of paper herein embraced.

SEC. 9. Be it further enacted, That upon all cotton hereafter planted and gathered, there shall, for each year, be assessed and collected on each pound of seed cotton, over and above twenty-five hundred pounds of seed cotton, made and gathered during the tax year, to every full hand employed in raising and gathering the same, by any one party, or on any one plantation or farm, a tax of ten cents per pound for every pound of excess over and above twenty-five hundred pounds to each full hand employed in raising and gathering the same; or if the crop be ginned, then every pound of ginned cotton shall be estimated as equal to four pounds of seed cotton: Provided, That no tax shall be imposed on any cotton planted after the proclamation of the governor announcing that peace has been made between the Confederate States and the United States, or that the blockade of the ports of the Confederate States has been removed.

SEC. 10. Be it further enacted, That upon profits under contracts with parties who, by reason of such contracts, are released and exempted from military service in the army of the Confederate States, there shall be assessed and collected a tax of ten per cent. And upon all wages or salaries of persons who, by reason of any engagement, appointment, or contract in any department of the Confederate Government are exempted from conscription, ten per cent. on such wages or salary.

SEC. 11. Be it further enacted, That all persons engaged in any business, or pursuit, the receipts, sales, profits, commissions and salaries of which, or capital employed in which, are subject to assessment and taxation under the provisions of this act, shall furnish a written statement, under oath, of such receipts, sales, salaries, commissions, profits or capital, to the assessor; and any person willfully failing or refusing to do so shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof must be fined not more than two thousand dollars, and may be imprisoned not more than one year, one or both, at the discretion of the jury trying the case.

SEC. 12. Be it further enacted, That to enable the assessors more fully and thoroughly to carry out the provisions of this act, and other laws of the State, on the subject of revenue, they are hereby authorized and empowered to examine any other person on oath as to the correctness of any list of assessment that may be rendered, or as to the correctness of the valuation of any property assessed; and it is made the special duty of assessors to inquire into the correctness of all lists of assessment rendered, as well as the fairness of the valuation under every assessment, and whenever he shall have reason to suspect that either the one or the other has not been correctly and fairly given in, he shall call in such persons as are likely to know as to the correctness of the assessment, or fairness of the valuation, and examine them on oath in relation to such assessment, or valuation; and any person refusing to be examined, or withholding any information on such examination, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars, at the discretion of the jury trying the case.

Authority conferred on Assessors.

SEC. 13. Be it further enacted, That it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller to see that the assessment of taxes on steamboats and other water crafts, wharves, toll bridges, ferries, turnpikes, foundries, &c., is duly observed and executed, and for this purpose he may appoint an agent, or attorney, in any of the principal cities or towns, or any other prominent point in the State, and allow to such attorney, or agent, a fair compensation for his services. It shall also be his duty to inquire into and correct past omissions to assess and collect the tax on the items above named in this section.

Duty of Comptroller as to taxes on Steamboats, &c.

Further duty.

SEC. 14. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners' courts of the several counties to revise and compare the assessment list, and if, in their opinion, there is any omission, discrepancy, irregularity, or error in the assessment, or valuation of property, profits, or salaries, they shall, so far as to any such supposed omission, discrepancy, irregularity or error, direct a re-assessment to be made, either by the assessor or such other person or persons as they may deem most suitable and competent.

Commissioners' Court to revise and compare.

Penalty for incorrect list.

SEC. 15. Be it further enacted, That if any person shall fail or refuse to render to the assessor of the proper county a correct list or statement of all property and profits, including salaries subject to taxation, or shall otherwise evade, or attempt to evade, a compliance with the revenue laws of this State, he or she shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction fined and imprisoned, one or both, at the discretion of the jury trying the case: one-half of any fine imposed under the provisions of this section shall be paid to any person informing the grand jury of the offense, and such informer shall be a competent witness in all trials against such offenders.

Valuation to be on basis of the paper currency.

SEC. 16. Be it further enacted, That the ascertainment of all values and amounts under the revenue laws of this State shall be upon the basis of the paper currency receivable in payment of taxes at the time the assessment is made.

Comptroller to distribute blank forms.

SEC. 17. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the comptroller of public accounts to have printed and distributed, to the assessors and collectors of the several counties of this State, blank forms setting forth each item of taxation, and that each party giving in any property or item subject to taxation shall give in the same in the form prescribed in the assessment list, subscribed and sworn to; all of which lists shall be filed in the office of the judge of probate.

Collector to fill up a blank for each tax-payer.

SEC. 18. Be it further enacted, That the collector shall fill up a blank for each tax payer, setting forth the items on which he pays tax, according to assessment, and that he receipt the same; and upon the failure of any assessor or collector to comply with the provisions of this, or the preceding section, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction fined at the discretion of the jury trying the case.

Penalty for failing

Duty of Commissioner of Land Office.

SEC. 19. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the commissioner of the land office annually to furnish the comptroller of public accounts with a statement of the number of acres of land sold and entered in the State—shewing the number of acres in each county; also, the number of acres of land unsold in the State, and the number of acres belonging to or reserved for railroads in the State; shewing also the number of acres vacant and the number belonging to or reserved for railroads in each county.

SEC. 20. Be it further enacted, That it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller of public accounts, in his annual report, to show the number of acres of land subject to taxation in the State, the number of acres taxable in each county, and the number actually assessed and paying tax in each county; also, the quantity of vacant lands in the State, the quantity belonging to or reserved for railroads in the State, as well as the quantity of each class in the several counties of the State.

Comptroller in annual report must show, &c.

SEC. 21. Be it further enacted, That the tax year shall be the year ending on the last day of February in each year.

The tax year.

SEC. 22. Be it further enacted, That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act be, and the same are, hereby repealed; and that all laws and parts of laws not in conflict therewith be, and the same are, hereby continued in force, and shall be embraced in any compilation of the laws on the subject of revenue that has been, or may be, provided for by any act of this general assembly.

Certain laws repealed.

Other laws continued in force.

SEC. 24. Be it further enacted, That the following taxes and licenses shall be assessed and collected by the judge of probate, to-wit:

Taxes and licenses to be collected by Probate Judges.

1. On every legacy subject, under the provisions of this act to assessment, left by any will, on which letters testamentary are taken out in this State, there must be assessed and collected, by the judge of probate of the county in which such letters are taken out, on every hundred dollars, and at that rate, of the value or amount, five dollars; and if not paid on the receipt of such legacy, such judge must issue execution for the amount of such assessment, against the executor, or administrator, and his securities, to be collected and returned as other executions from the probate court.

Legacies.

2. On each lecture, to which entrance fees are charged, four dollars; if not paid to the judge of probate on demand, the lecturer to be brought before such judge, and fined ten dollars for each lecture he has failed to pay for on demand.

Lectures.

Certificate under official seal.

3. On each certificate, under their official seal, except for the benefit of a soldier, or his family, and on all licenses, except marriage licenses, the judge of probate must collect a tax of fifty cents.

Licenses.

4. Licenses are to be granted and issued on the payment of the following sums as State tax, the county tax thereon, and fees:

Retail.

5. To retail, for one year, spirituous or vinous liquors, on any steamboat or water craft, one hundred and twenty dollars; in a city, or town having more than one thousand inhabitants, one hundred and fifty dollars; in a city, town or village having more than five hundred, and less than one thousand inhabitants, eighty dollars; in cities, towns and villages having less than five hundred inhabitants, sixty dollars; and in the country, forty dollars.

Auctioneers.

6. To carry on the business of an auctioneer throughout the State, for one year, forty dollars.

Daguerreotyp-ists, &c.

7. To practice or carry on the business, for one year, of a daguerreotypist, ambrotypist, photographer, or any modification, or improvement, or form thereof, in taking pictures, either on glass, paper, metal, or in any other way, by whatsoever name they may be known, or may call themselves, at one station in the county, or in a village not having more than five hundred inhabitants, ten dollars; in towns with not more than four thousand inhabitants, fifty dollars; to practice the art generally, anywhere in the State, one hundred dollars.

Dentists.

8. To carry on the business of dentistry, by any transient dentist, who has not been a resident of the State for twelve months, for one year, throughout the State, one hundred dollars.

Billiard tables.

9. To keep a billiard table for public play, for one year, one hundred and fifty dollars; at a watering place, for six months, seventy-five dollars; but if used for a longer time than the six months, under any pretence, the owner or proprietor of the table shall be liable to indictment in the same manner as if no license had been granted.

Bagatelle.

10. To keep a bagatelle table for public play, for one year, twenty dollars.

Ten-pin Alley.

11. To keep a ten-pin alley, or alley of the like kind, for public play, for one year, forty dollars; at a watering place for six months, twenty dollars; but if used for a longer time than six months, the same penalty is imposed as for a billiard table.

12. To keep any other table, stand or place, for any other game or play, with or without a name, for one year, unless for exercise or amusement only, and not prohibited by law, twenty dollars. Any other table, stand or place.

13. To keep a public race track, for one year, on every hundred dollars, and at that rate, of the gross annual income, as near as the same can be ascertained, ten dollars; but in no case less than fifty dollars. Public Race track.

14. For theatres in a city, two hundred dollars; in a village or watering place, sixty dollars for one year. Theatres.

15. For concerts or musical entertainments for profit, for each, ten dollars. Concerts.

16. To exhibit, for profit, any museum, wax works, menageries, or curiosities of any kind, except paintings and statuary, on each day's and night's exhibition, twenty dollars. Museums, Menageries, &c.

17. To exhibit dwarfs, persons of unusual size, or persons or animals deformed, throughout the State, for any one day, fifty dollars; but not to exceed two hundred dollars for any number of exhibitions in the same place, on consecutive days, exclusive of Sundays. Exhibitions of Dwarfs, &c.

18. For the exhibition of a circus, feats of activity, and sleight of hand, for each exhibition, not exceeding twenty-four hours, twenty dollars. Circuses, &c.

19. To peddle for one year, on any one steamboat or water craft, one thousand dollars; in a wagon, for each wagon in a county, one thousand dollars; for each horse in a county, five hundred dollars; on foot in each county, three hundred dollars for each person. Peddling.

20. For exhibiting spirit rappings, spiritual manifestations, or other device, by whatsoever name called, which professes to reveal communications from the spirits of the living or the dead, for profit or otherwise, five hundred dollars for each day they shall exhibit. Spirit-rapping, &c.

21. To sell, offer, or expose for sale, by a negro trader, broker or agent, for the sale of slaves, twenty dollars on each slave; but this tax is not to be imposed on such slaves as may be sold on commission for citizens of this State, when the owner or owners, or any one of them, or the auctioneer, broker or agent, will make affidavit in writing, to whom such slaves belong, that such owner or owners of such slaves are residents of this State, and have owned such slaves for more than Offering for sale of slaves.
As to residents.

License must set forth.

one year immediately preceding such sale, offer, or exposure for sale, and upon which slaves the regular State and county taxes for the year in which such property may be sold, shall have been paid before such sale; but shall in no case apply to any slaves owned by any trader, broker or auctioneer, or other person selling slaves on speculation, or as a business. The license to authorize the sale, offer, or exposure for sale, in any county of the State, must set forth the name and description of the slaves, except in the case of small children having no name, which must be described by their ages.

License declared to be for one year.

22. All licenses, unless otherwise declared by law, must be for one year, and confined to the county in which they are granted; and when issued for retailing, keeping billiard tables, ten-pin alleys, or alleys of the like kind, or any stand, table, or place for any other game or play, to one place only in the county; and in all cases to the person alone to whom the license is granted; and it is hereby expressly made the duty of the judge of probate of each county, by himself or agent, to inquire of every person doing, or offering to do, any business for which a license is required, and ascertain whether the law has been complied with, and if not, to cause the person to be bound over to court.

Without license, the penalty.

23. If any person does any act, engages in any business, keeps any table, opens any theatre, gives any concert, exhibition, or performance, specified in this act as the subject of a license, or being a negro trader, broker, or agent for the sale of slaves, sells, offers, or exposes for sale any slave, without first obtaining a license therefor from the proper authority, he is guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, must be fined at the discretion of the jury trying the case; and if the conviction is for selling spirituous or vinous liquors without a license, the court may imprison the offender not exceeding sixty days.

Persons to exhibit license in certain cases.

24. In those cases in which a license is not confined to one county, it is the duty of the judge of probate to require of the person following the business, or doing the act, to exhibit his license; and on his failure so to do, or if he has any reason to suppose that such person has violated the provisions of this section, such judge must at once issue his warrant to any sheriff, or constable, and cause such person to be brought before him,

Penalty for failing.

and bound over to the next circuit court of the county in a sum equal at least to double the amount of the license money; and failing to give security, he must be committed to jail until such security is given, or he is otherwise discharged by law; but if such person, on being brought before such judge of probate, pays the amount of license money, county tax, fees, and all costs, he may be discharged.

25. The judge of probate of each county must, on the first day of each circuit court, furnish to the foreman of the grand jury a statement in writing, showing the licenses granted under this act, within two years preceding such court, to whom, and for what, such license was granted; and failing so to do, on conviction, must be fined not less than one hundred dollars.

Probate Judge must furnish to

To provide for the Public Safety.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That, to provide for the public safety by quelling insurrection, preventing or repelling invasion, the governor is invested with full power and authority Governor empowered to impress slaves, &c.

Limitation as to impressment.

to impress the labor of all male slaves between the ages of eighteen and fifty years, or so many thereof as he may deem necessary, with the use of tools and implements, wagons, teams, and harness, which may be necessary to render the labor of the slaves so impressed effective, with subsistence for the same; also timber, cut and growing, and lumber, as well as arms and ammunition, and ordnance stores, and subsistence, for State troops actually in service; also steamboats and other water craft, but unless in the opinion of the governor the necessity is pressing, or the danger imminent, no slave shall be impressed from any slaveholder, company, partnership, corporation, or joint owner, owning, or having in possession less than ten slaves, and no slave owner, company, partnership, corporation, or joint owner, whose slaves are subject to impressment under this act, in any one year from its passage, shall be required to furnish a greater amount of slave labor than in the aggregate is equivalent to sixty days' labor for each slave so subject, unless in the opinion of the governor a longer service is necessary, and in estimating the amount of such labor, credit shall be given for the labor of any slaves, previously furnished, under the order or requisition of the governor which may be proved by affidavits.

Owners who may select overseer.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That in all cases of impressment of slaves under the preceding section, the owners of every thirty slaves impressed may select a white man to attend on such slaves to perform such duties connected with their labor police, security, comfort and health, as the governor may direct, who shall receive two dollars for each day's service.

Governor's power may be exercised by the military power.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the authority conferred upon the governor under this act, may be exercised and enforced by the military power of the State, under his orders, or by special agents appointed by him, and acting under his direction; that any person in charge or possession of slaves, or any other property subject to impressment under this act, who shall resist any officer or agent of the State impressing such slaves, or other property, or who shall fail or refuse to deliver the same on demand to such officer, or agent, or who shall remove or conceal the same with intent to avoid impressment, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be fined not less than three hundred dollars, and imprisoned in the common jail not less than three months; and it is hereby made the duty of the officer or agent to return such person to the clerk of the next circuit court of the county in which the offense is committed by the first day of the same, whose duty it shall be to report the same for prosecution to the solicitor before the adjournment of the grand jury.

Penalty for resisting.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the governor shall, in the first instance, assess a just compensation for the labor of any slaves, the use of implements, tools, teams, wagons or harness, steamboats or other water craft, and for any other property impressed under this act, which, if satisfactory, shall be paid by warrant on the State treasurer, as provided for under clause 3 section 3, of an act, entitled "an act making appropriations for the military defense of the State," approved February 6, 1861, but if not satisfactory the owner shall, within sixty days therefrom, file his dissent in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county of his residence, and such court shall judicially ascertain a just compensation for the labor of the slaves, the use of the tools, implements, wagons, teams, harness, steamboats or other water craft, and the value of any other description of property impressed from the person so dissenting, and if said compensation exceeds the amount assessed by the governor, judgment shall be rendered in favor of the owner or his personal representatives against the State, which shall be paid as other judgments against the State; but if the compensation so ascertained shall not exceed the amount assessed by the governor, judgment shall be rendered in favor of the State against the owner or his personal representatives for all the costs of the proceedings; and it shall be the duty of the solicitor to act as counsel for the State, who shall, in case judgment is rendered in its favor, be entitled to receive from the owner, or his representatives the sum of ten dollars, which shall be taxed in the bill of costs, but nothing contained in this section shall effect the rights of the owner or his representatives to obtain the compensation assessed by the governor, in case that upon his dissent judgment shall be rendered in favor of the State.

Compensation to be assessed.

Proceedings as to compensation.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That from the decision of the circuit court the State shall have the right

AN ACT

To amend an Act supplemental to two several Acts in relation to Salt, approved December 7, 1861, and the several Acts to which it is supplemental, and for other purposes.

Advance authorized.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That for the purpose of encouraging the production of salt by John P. Figh, lessee of certain salt lands in Clarke county, on which the said lessee has in operation certain salt works, the governor is hereby authorized to advance to said lessee a sum of money not exceeding ten thousand dollars, to be expended by the said lessee in the purchase of additional salt pans, kettles and boilers, in boring additional wells for supplying salt water and for the erection of additional furnaces. To secure fidelity in the use of such advance, the governor shall require the said lessee to enter into bond with good security to faithfully comply with the provisions of this section.

Purposes.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That the terms of the lease of the said lessee be, and the same are hereby changed in the several respects hereafter shown: the said lessee shall relinquish to the State of Alabama the bounty of ten cents per bushel allowed him by existing laws, and shall deliver to the governor, or to the agent of the governor, at the place of manufacture, two-fifths of all the salt hereafter manufactured by said lessee—the said lessee retaining for himself the other three-fifths of all the salt hereafter manufactured by him. Divisions of the salt hereafter manufactured from time to time by said lessee, shall be made as often as required by the governor, so as to enable the governor to procure, as often as he thinks proper, deliveries of the portions of the salt to which the State is entitled by the provisions of this act; and such deliveries must be made by said lessee as often as required by the governor. The said lease shall expire at the termination of the existing war, unless continued afterwards by the consent of the governor and said lessee. The said lessee shall keep a correct account of all salt manufactured, and render monthly statements thereof to the governor under oath. The governor in person, or by agent, shall lay off and set apart to the exclusive use and control of said lessee, so much of the lands included in his said lease as will secure him against any interference or hindrance in the enjoyment of his said lease, or in the procurement of water adequate to the supply of any number of boiling furnaces, machinery and other fixtures necessary to the full enjoyment of his said lease. In the event the present war shall close, or the lessee be compelled by the enemy to abandon his salt works and in consequence thereof he be desirous of abandoning his lease, in such case he shall at once signify such intention or desire to the governor, who shall thereupon, on the part of the State, relinquish such portion of the advances which shall have been made to him by the governor, and shall remain unrefunded: Provided, Such unrefunded portion shall have been expended in the purchase of boilers, salt pans and kettles, and in the erection of furnaces and boring of wells, or in other permanent improvements upon the salt lands included in said lease, and said lessee shall turn over to the governor, free of charge, all the improvements made by said lessee upon said lands including the boilers, salt pans, kettles and other fix-

Figh under his said lease: Provided, That said lessee John P. Figh shall have the exclusive use and control of all timber growing or being upon the lands included in his said lease during the continuance thereof: And provided further, That all the timber growing or being upon the lands known as the upper salt reserve, shall be reserved and held under the control of the governor or his agent for the use of State salt works; and the governor in person, or by proxy, is hereby authorized and required to locate all persons other than lessees of the State, engaged in manufacturing salt upon the public salt lands, and set apart to each manufacturer, suitable grounds by metes and bounds, in such manner as to secure the State works and all lessees under the State, from hindrance or inconvenience in the prosecution of manufacturing salt, and to prevent collision between those who may be manufacturing for their own use: Provided, That said lessee Figh shall not sub-let any portion of the furnaces or machinery so leased to him without the consent of the governor: And provided further, That the governor shall not permit any person to manufacture any salt upon any of the public salt lands, without a contract of lease.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That if any lessee of any salt works in this State shall violate the contract under and by which he leased the same, the governor is hereby authorized to take immediate possession of and hold and work the same; and if the exercise of such authority is resisted, the governor may enforce the same by the military power of the State.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That the governor shall cause the salt he may receive under this act from said lessee John P. Figh, or from any other lessee of this State, to be distributed among the counties according to their population; the salt for each county to be placed under the control of its court of county commissioners, who shall distribute the same among the citizens of the county, according to their actual wants, giving a preference to the families of soldiers in the military service of this State or of the Confederate States; and the governor shall only charge such price for the salt thus distributed as he deems just and fair.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That this act shall not go into effect, in so far as it changes the terms of the said lease of the said John P. Figh, until he shall signify to the governor his assent to the provisions of this act; which assent, if signified at all, must be signified in writing signed by him and filed with the governor within two days after the approval of this act by the governor. If the said lessee John P. Figh shall not assent to the provisions of this act within the time aforesaid, he may within that time signify in writing to the governor his desire to terminate his said lease; and if he does within that time so signify his desire to terminate his said lease, he is hereby authorized to terminate it upon compliance with the terms and conditions indicated or prescribed in the last sentence of the second section of this act; and if said lessee Figh should thus terminate his said lease, the governor is hereby authorized to lease the said lands and property embraced by or connected with said lease, without delay, upon such terms and conditions as he deems best for the State.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That the deputy warden, clerk, and all subordinate officers of the penitentiary, shall be appointed by the warden, by and with the approval of the inspectors, and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the warden: Provided, that none of said offices, except that of sergeant of the guard, shall be filled by persons subject to conscription, under the acts of the congress of the Confederate States.

Warden to report

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the warden shall report immediately to the inspectors all appointments of officers which he shall make; he shall from time to time propose in writing to the inspectors such alterations as he may think advisable in the rules and regulations for the direction of the officers and for the government of the penitentiary.

Salaries.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That the officers of the penitentiary shall receive the following salaries, to-wit: Warden, thirty-seven hundred and fifty dollars; the deputy warden one thousand dollars; physician, five hundred dollars; the clerk, one thousand dollars a year, all of which sums shall be paid by the warden in monthly or quarterly payments out of the treasury of the penitentiary, and shall be in full for all services, and no other perquisite, reward or emoluments shall be allowed or received by any of them.

Pay of Inspectors.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That the pay of the inspectors shall be two hundred dollars per annum, and no mileage shall be allowed to any inspector for traveling to and from the penitentiary.

What the guard consists of.

SEC. 8. Be it further enacted, That there shall be maintained at the penitentiary a guard, to be employed by the wardens thereof, to consist of one sergeant and as many guards as the warden and inspectors may deem necessary; the guard shall be furnished from the arsenal of this state, with sufficient arms and accoutrements, and shall be subject to the command and direction of the warden of the penitentiary, who may dismiss at pleasure any of them; the sergeant shall receive not exceeding six hundred dollars per annum, and each of the guards such pay as the warden may think his service worth, not exceeding three hundred and sixty dollars per annum, besides rations to be established by the board of inspectors.

SEC. 9. Be it further enacted, That the warden, deputy warden, clerk and physician, shall support themselves from their own resources, and shall not receive any emoluments or perquisites for their services other than the compensation provided in this act.

No perquisites for certain officers.

SEC. 10. Be it further enacted, That all officers shall, before they enter upon the duties of their respective offices and appointments, take and subscribe before some justice of the peace or other officer authorized to administer oaths, the following oath: I, ———, do solemnly swear, (or affirm) that I will support the constitution of the Confederate States, and the constitution of the State of Alabama, so long as I remain a citizen thereof, and that I will faithfully execute and discharge the duties required of me as ——— of the Alabama penitentiary, and will execute the laws, rules and regulations prescribed for the government of said institution, so far as concerns my office, and that I will in no case ill-treat or abuse any convict under my charge, or punish him beyond the punishment ordered by law and and the rules and regulations of this institution, so help me God.”

Oath.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That the board of inspectors shall, from time to time, choose one of their number to be their president, who shall preside at their regular meetings, and whenever in his opinion the exigency requires it, he shall convene the board; they shall cause the clerk of the penitentiary to keep a regular minute of their meetings and proceedings, which shall be signed by them and preserved in the penitentiary.

Board to choose a president.

Minutes.

SEC. 12. Be it further enacted, That the board of inspectors shall, from time to time, establish rules and regulations consistent with the laws of the state, for the direction of the officers of the penitentiary in the discharge of their duties, for the government, employment and discipline of the convicts, and for the custody and preservation of the public property; and as soon as may be after the establishment of any such rules and regulations by the inspectors, they shall cause authentic copies thereof to be laid before the governor, who may approve, annul, or modify the same, and the inspectors shall cause a copy of all such rules and regulations as shall have been approved by the governor, to be certified as soon as may be by the clerk of the penitentiary, and delivered to the warden.

Board to visit,
how often.

SEC. 13. Be it further enacted, That the inspectors, or one of them, shall visit the penitentiary at least once a week, and it shall be visited by the board of inspectors once a month, and oftener, if they shall think it necessary, for the purpose of inspecting the books and all the concerns of the prison, and ascertaining whether the laws and the rules and regulations relating to the prison are duly observed, and whether the officers are competent and faithful and the convicts are properly governed and employed; and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the penitentiary to note the failure of any inspector to attend the regular monthly meetings of the board, (unless such failure shall be caused by his sickness,) his office shall be considered as vacated, and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the penitentiary to notify the governor thereof, and the governor shall fill said vacancy by appointing some other person, who shall hold his term for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

Duty of clerk.

Violation to be reported to governor.

SEC. 14. Be it further enacted, That the inspectors shall report to the governor forthwith all violations of law and omissions of duty by the warden that shall come to their knowledge, and every officer who holds his place at the pleasure of the inspectors, who shall be found unfaithful or incompetent, shall be forthwith removed.

Annual report to be made.

SEC. 15. Be it further enacted, That the inspectors of the penitentiary shall, on the first day of October in each year, transmit to the governor a report exhibiting a complete and comprehensive view of the transactions of the penitentiary during the preceding year, of the number of convicts confined therein, the offence for which committed, and the respective periods of imprisonment, their ages, sizes, previous occupation, profession or employment, and where born; the report shall also state the number of convicts who have been pardoned, discharged, and died during the year, stating the date of their conviction and of their pardon or death, the period of time for which they were sentenced, the counties in which they were convicted, their age, sex and color, the deportment of each convict while in the penitentiary, and in case of death, the particular disease of which the convict was supposed to have died.

SEC. 16. Be it further enacted, That the inspectors of the penitentiary may remove the convicts therein to such place or places of security within the state as they may deem expedient, if in their opinion the prevalence of any epidemic, infections or contagious disease, or other urgent occasion, shall render such a measure necessary and proper.

Convicts may be removed in case of epidemic.

SEC. 17. Be it further enacted, That the penitentiary shall be visited by the governor annually, or as much oftener as his excellency may think proper, for the purpose of examining its condition.

Governor to visit once a year.

SEC. 18. Be it further enacted, That before the warden enters upon the duties of his office he shall give bond to the state in the sum of fifty thousand dollars, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the governor, with condition that he shall account for all monies placed in or otherwise coming into his hands as treasurer, and perform all the duties incumbent on him as warden of the penitentiary, and such bond shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and may from time to time be put in suit by the governor against any one or more of the obligors, and shall not become void on its first recovery nor until the whole penalty shall be exhausted.

Warden's bond.

SEC. 19. Be it further enacted, That the officers of the penitentiary shall reside constantly within the precincts of the penitentiary, and the warden and deputy warden shall not both be absent therefrom at the same time, and neither the warden nor any person appointed by him, shall, during the time of his office, be employed or engaged in any business for private emolument, not pertaining to his office: Provided, that it shall be lawful for the warden or deputy warden to engage in agricultural pursuits, to such an extent as to interfere with his public duties.

Where officers to reside.

SEC. 20. Be it further enacted, That the warden shall have the charge and custody of the penitentiary, with the lands, buildings, furniture, tools, implements, stock, provisions, and every other species of property within the precincts thereof, or appertaining thereto; he shall be treasurer of the penitentiary, and shall receive and pay out all money granted by the legislature, (if any) and by the receipts for labor of the prisoners and for the support thereof, and shall cause to be kept in suitable books regular and complete accounts of all the property, expenses, income, business, and concerns of the establishment, and all the books and documents relating to the concerns of the penitentiary shall at all times be open to the inspectors, who shall semi-annually, or oftener if they think necessary, carefully examine the said books and compare them with the vouchers and documents relating thereto.

Warden to examine daily.

SEC. 21. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the warden to examine daily into the state of the penitentiary, and the health, conduct and safe-keeping of the convicts; to use every proper means to furnish them with employment; to superintend all the manufacturing and mechanical business of the penitentiary; to receive the articles so manufactured, and to sell and dispose of the same for the benefit of the state.

Articles to be sold for cash.

SEC. 22. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the warden to dispose of all the manufactured articles, and everything sold for cash.

Deposits with State Treasurer.

SEC. 23. Be it further enacted, That all moneys that may accrue, (if any) after paying the expenses of said institution, shall be deposited monthly or quarterly in the state treasury, as the penitentiary fund, and may be disposed of as hereafter may be ordered.

Warden to have made out full accounts annually.

SEC. 24. Be it further enacted, That the warden shall, on the first day of October in each year, cause to be made full and detailed accounts of all the disbursements and expenses, and all the receipts and profits, stock, and material on hand, of the prison, accompanied by sufficient vouchers, to the inspectors of the penitentiary.

Further duty of other officers.

SEC. 25. Be it further enacted, That the deputy warden, and all other subordinate officers, shall perform such duties in the charge and oversight of the penitentiary, the care of the property thereto belonging, and the custody, government, employment and discipline of the convicts as shall be required of them by the warden, in conformity to law and the rules and regulations of the penitentiary.

SEC. 26. Be it further enacted, That whenever the office of warden shall be vacant, by death, resignation, or otherwise, the deputy warden shall have all the powers and perform all the duties, and receive the same salary of the warden, until one shall be appointed and qualified; and such deputy, in such event, shall be subject to all the obligations and liabilities imposed by law on the warden. No deputy warden shall enter upon the duties of his office until he shall enter into bond, with sufficient securities, to be approved by the board of inspectors, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars, conditioned to perform all the duties of deputy warden, and faithfully account for all money or effects which shall come into his hands in the event of a vacancy in the office of warden, by the death or resignation of the warden, or otherwise, during the continuance of such deputy warden in office.

When Dep. Warden may act as Warden.

SEC. 27. Be it further enacted, That the physician shall visit the hospital of the penitentiary at least every other day, and as much oftener as necessary, prescribe for convicts that may be sick, and attend to the regimen, clothing and cleanliness of such of them as are in the hospital. He shall keep a regular journal, which shall remain at the penitentiary, of all admissions into the hospital, stating the time, the nature of the disease, with his prescriptions, and the treatment of each patient, and the time of his discharge from the hospital, or his death; the said journal shall also contain regular entries of all orders that shall be given for supplies for the hospital department, specifying the articles ordered. All such orders shall be in writing, and the warden shall provide the supplies so ordered under the direction of the inspectors.

Duties of the Physician.

SEC. 28. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the physician of the penitentiary to keep a register of all the convicts under his charge, stating the disease with which they are afflicted, and the state of their health on entering and leaving the hospital, and the cause of disease, when the same can be ascertained, and also a register of all infirm convicts, stating their names, ages, place of birth, and the particular infirmity of each; and such register shall remain in the hospital open to inspection.

Further duties of Physician.

Sick convicts.

SEC. 29. Be it further enacted, That whenever any convict shall complain of such illness as requires medical aid, if, in the opinion of the physician, the illness is such as requires his removal to the hospital, the warden shall order such removal, and the convict shall remain in the hospital until the physician shall determine that he may leave it without injury to his health.

As to insane convicts.

SEC. 30. Be it further enacted, That whenever the physician of the penitentiary shall report to the warden that any convict is insane, it shall be the duty of the warden to cause such insane convict to be removed to the hospital, or such other place as to secure his safe keeping and proper care in the penitentiary until removed.

Insane convicts to be reported to the governor.

SEC. 31. Be it further enacted, That the physician of the penitentiary shall report to the governor the names of all the insane convicts that are now, or may hereafter be imprisoned in the penitentiary, as often as such cases shall occur.

Exemption from militia duty.

SEC. 32. Be it further enacted, That all persons holding office or appointment in the penitentiary shall be exempted, during their continuance in office, from serving on juries, from militia duty, and from working on public roads, and their testimony shall be taken in civil suits by deposition, as provided by law for other purposes.

Contracts to be made for certain articles.

SEC. 33. Be it further enacted, That the principal articles purchased for the use of the penitentiary, such as provisions and fuel, together with their transportation, shall be contracted for by the year, when such contracts can be advantageously made, and the warden shall give previous public notice, in two newspapers at least in this state, of the articles wanted, the quantity, quality thereof, the time and manner of delivery, and the period during which proposals therefor will be received; and such notice shall be published a sufficient length of time for the information of persons who may probably be desirous to offer proposals for such contracts.

As to proposals.

SEC. 34. Be it further enacted, That all such proposals shall be in writing, and sealed up, and on the day appointed they shall be opened by the warden in the presence of the inspectors and compared, and the person offering the best terms, with satisfactory security for the performance of the same, shall be entitled to the contract, unless it shall appear to the warden and in spectors that none of the offers are as low as the market price; in that case, no offer shall be accepted, and the warden, with the consent of the inspectors, may advertise again, as before, or he may proceed to make contracts for any of the articles wanted for the penitentiary, in the best way he can, for the interest of the state, without further notice.

SEC. 35. Be it further enacted, That every such contractor shall give bond in a reasonable sum, with satisfactory surety, or sureties, for the performance of his contract, and no officer of the penitentiary shall be concerned or interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract, purchase or sale made for, or on account of, the the penitentiary. Contractor to give bond.

SEC. 36. Be it further enacted, That all contracts on account of the penitentiary shall be made by the warden, shall be in writing, and when approved in writing by the inspectors, shall be binding in law, and the warden, or his successor may sue thereon to final judgment and execution. No suit shall abate by reason of the office of warden becoming vacant, but any successor of the warden, pending such suit, may take upon himself the prosecution thereof, and, upon motion of the adverse party, he shall be required so to do, or submit to a non-suit. Contracts to be in writing.
No suit to abate, &c.

SEC. 37. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the warden of the penitentiary, under the direction of the inspectors, to purchase and pay for, out of any funds in the treasury, such raw material as may be necessary to be manufactured and used by the convicts. Purchase of raw materials.

SEC. 38. Be it further enacted, That the necessary medicines and other hospital stores, for the use of the penitentiary, shall be purchased from time to time, as may be requisite, by the warden, with the advice of the physician, and under the direction of the inspectors. Medicines, &c.

SEC. 39. Be it further enacted, That all books of accounts, registers, returns, and other documents, and papers relating to the affairs of the penitentiary, shall be considered as public documents, and remain therein, and the warden shall cause to be preserved official copies of his correspondence with the governor, inspectors, or other public officers, and of any official communication he may have received from them. Books of account &c., public documents.

SEC. 40. Be it further enacted, That the removal of Conditions.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That at the time of admitting such subscriptions for stock, the said commissioners shall require from the subscriber the sum of five dollars for each share subscribed; the subscriber shall further pay an installment of fifteen dollars per share within ninety days after the first opening of said books; an installment of fifteen dollars per share within six months after said opening day; twenty dollars per share within nine months after said opening day; twenty-five dollars per share within twelve months after said opening day, and twenty dollars per share within fifteen months after said opening day; but any subscriber may, if he thinks proper, pay in his subscription at earlier days than above limited, and in such case, interest shall be equalized with the other stockholders upon equitable principles; the said commissioners shall deposit all moneys received by them in such bank, or other place of deposit as they may select, until the said new bank shall go into operation, after payment shall be received by itself; the commissioners shall have power to fill vacancies, occurring in their own body, by death, absence, or refusal to act until their duty is performed.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That whenever a sum of not less than two hundred thousand dollars, nor more than six hundred thousand dollars, shall have been subscribed to the capital stock of said bank, and after closing the books of subscription, and after half of the capital stock subscribed shall have been actually paid in gold or silver, the said bank may elect its officers under the following conditions, to-wit: the president and directors of said bank thus appointed shall, without loss of time, make the necessary arrangements to put the bank in operation, so soon as pursuant to the provisions of this act, the bank shall possess in gold and silver one half of the capital stock subscribed; but the said bank shall, under no pretext whatever, commence its banking operations by discounting bonds, or notes, or bills, by loaning money, or putting into circulation its own notes until it actually, and in good faith shall have and possess, of its own absolute property, in gold or silver, one half of the whole amount of capital stock subscribed, and shall have returned to the governor of this State an account thereof verified, by oath or affirmation, of the president or cashier for the time being, nor shall the bank so commence its operations until the governor, satisfied by the return aforesaid, and by such other evidence as may be offered, shall issue a proclamation, declaring that said return had been fully made, and that it appeared to his satisfaction that said company had, of their own absolute property, the amount in gold and silver aforesaid, and were authorized under the provisions of this act, to commence their banking operations as aforesaid, and if said bank, without actually, and in good faith, having of its own property, the amount of gold and silver as aforesaid, or without having made return as aforesaid, or without the proclamation of the governor as aforesaid, shall commence any such banking operations as aforesaid, the charter hereby granted shall be null and void, and said bank shall be considered, to all intents and purposes, an unchartered bank; and if more subscriptions be offered to the commissioners than they are authorized to receive, they shall scale and allow the subscriptions in such mode as they shall deem equitable, giving, in all cases, the preference to subscribers, who shall be citizens of Alabama, and if still necessary, they shall reduce the largest subscriptions so as to form the proper amount of capital stock, and no more: Provided, That no other bank be allowed to take stock in said bank.

Governor to issue proclamation

Penalty for commencing without compliance with the conditions.

Excess of subscriptions to be scaled.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That if, in closing the books of subscription, a sufficient capital shall not be subscribed to authorize the bank to go into operation under the terms of this act, the commissioners may again open the books afterwards, at such time and place as they may direct, under the same regulations as before provided, until the subscriptions be sufficient; after the bank officers shall have been elected, if the stock is not full, the board of directors shall have power to cause books to be opened, from time to time, until the stock and capital be full, and to appoint commissioners to receive such subscriptions, under such rules as they may prescribe, provided thirty days' notice be given,

Books may be opened again.

shall have power to fill all vacancies in the office of president or directors; six months absence removal from the state, transfer of stock down to a sum less than one thousand dollars, and any cause which shall prevent the attendance of such officer permanently to discharge the duties, or render him incapable of so doing, shall vacate the seat of such president or director.

Cashier and other officers.

SEC. 11. Be it further enacted, That the president and directors of such bank shall have power to appoint a cashier, and all such officers, clerks, agents and servants as may be necessary from time to time to carry on the business of the bank, and prescribe their compensation and duties and require proper bonds for the faithful discharge of their duties in their discretion, and to issue bank bills payable to bearer on demand at their banking house.

Stock assignable.

SEC. 12. Be it further enacted, That the shares of stock in said bank shall be assignable and transferrable according to such rules as shall be instituted in that behalf by the by-laws and ordinances of the bank, and transfer books shall be kept for that purpose: Provided, that in case of the failure of the bank within six months after any such transfer or sale of stock, the party selling and the party purchasing said stock shall be each held liable for the payment of the debts of the bank in proportion to the stock so transferred: Provided further,

Proviso.

Further proviso.

that no transfer of stock shall be made so as to vest in any one stockholder a greater number than one-fourth amount of the whole number of shares subscribed for in such corporation: And Provided further, that the bank shall have power to pass by-laws to prevent the assignment of shares by parties owing debts to said bank past due, until such indebtedness be paid, and to withhold dividends due to persons so being in default if they think it proper. Another proviso.

SEC. 13. Be it further enacted, That if any person or persons, copartnership, or body corporate, shall be indebted to said bank, as maker, endorser, guarantee, or as drawer, or acceptor of any note, bill or bond, made expressly negotiable and payable at the said bank, and shall delay payment thereof, the said bank may move for judgment and award of execution against such debtor, in any court of record in the state where such defendant may reside or corporation so indebted be located, and judgment thereon shall be rendered as may be lawful and proper: Provided, that the defendant in any such case shall have thirty days' notice of such motion before the same is made, specifying what the demand is: Provided also, that at the time of making such motion, the bank shall produce and file a certificate of its president or cashier, under the seal of the bank, that the debt claimed is really and bona fide the property of the bank: Provided further, that if any defendant shall appear and contest the claim, the court shall require the bank to file its declaration and the defendant his pleas, and cause issues to be joined in law or fact, to be tried instanter, or during the term as the court may direct, by a jury or by the court, as the case may be, unless on sufficient cause shown it be necessary to continue the case, and the court shall give judgment as may be proper: And provided further, that the summary remedy thus given shall not preclude any other mode of redress which may be lawful to enforce the right of the bank. May move for judgment in certain cases.

Further proviso.

SEC. 14. Be it further enacted, That the said remedies given for the collection of debts due the bank shall be reciprocal for and against the bank, and in motions against the bank, no certificate shall be required to be filed as above set forth, and the courts of record in the county in which said bank is located, having jurisdiction, shall hear motions for the recovery of all debts due by said bank, and in all suits against such corpora- Remedies reciprocal.

tion service of process on the president or cashier shall be sufficient to bring the defendant into court.

Fundamental articles.

SEC. 15. Be it further enacted, That the said bank shall be subject to the following rules and regulations, and they are declared to be fundamental articles in the constitution of said corporation, to-wit :

ARTICLE 1ST. The bank shall not commence operations until half the capital stock subscribed for be actually paid, in gold or silver, which amount shall in no case be less than one hundred thousand dollars.

ARTICLE 2. That the stockholders in said bank shall be bound respectively for all the debts of the bank in proportion to their stock holden therein, and this provision shall in no wise affect or impair the provisions of the twelfth section of this act.

Liability.

ARTICLE 3. That the bank shall not be authorized to issue or have in circulation, at one time, notes or bills of the bank to an amount exceeding twice the amount of the capital stock actually paid in, and in case of an issue greater than herein allowed, the president and directors under whose administration it may happen shall be liable for the same in their natural and private capacities, and actions may be brought against them, or either of them, in any court, by any creditor of said corporation, and may be prosecuted to judgment, any condition or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding; but the corporation shall not on account of this provision be liable and chargeable with said excess: Provided, that the President and such of said directors who may have been absent, or dissenting, when said excess was contracted or created, may respectively exonerate themselves from being so liable by forthwith giving notice of the fact of their absence or dissent at a general meeting of the stockholders, which they shall have power to call for that purpose.

Proviso.

debt is justly due, and that the bank has no just defense against the demand, and if it shall appear expedient and necessary, upon the proof presented, in order to prevent fraud and injustice, he shall grant an order for such injunction: Provided, that the bank shall have had such reasonable notice of the application as the chancellor or judge may prescribe, and shall not be able to show sufficient cause against the same, and the said chancellor or judge shall then proceed further to inquire, on such further notice as he may prescribe, whether the bank be clearly solvent or not, and may require the officers of the bank to exhibit any and all of its books, papers, accounts, assets, moneys and effects, and be examined on oath touching the same before him, and if it shall appear that said bank is not clearly solvent, then he may make an order declaring the same to be insolvent, and requiring its affairs to be wound up and settled; and further, if, in his opinion the safety of the creditors shall require it, such judge or chancellor may appoint a receiver to take charge of the assets of the bank and to close and settle its affairs, and may make all such orders for the accomplishment of the same safely, properly, and economically, as the case may require; but if it shall appear on such examination that said bank is already solvent, or if there shall appear to be a deficiency of assets, and the bank shall procure and give good security for the payment of any deficiency which may exist, and that the assets shall prove sufficient to pay or satisfy all the debts of the bank, to the satisfaction of the judge or chancellor, then no such receiver shall be appointed, and upon the payment of the debt complained of, the injunction and proceedings shall be dismissed, and such order shall be made for the payment of costs as the judge or chancellor shall deem proper and just, and the proceedings shall be returned and made of record in the chancery court of the county or district in which said bank is located, and shall be subject to revision and correction by the supreme court, as in other cases.

When insolvent,
how to proceed.

SEC. 20. Be it further enacted, That in case the said bank be found insolvent, and settlement of its affairs be ordered as herein provided, the same shall be done upon bill filed in said chancery court, under the order of court and rules of chancery, and full distribution shall be made of the assets according to the rights of all parties; but the holders of bank notes and obligations issued for circulation as money, shall be first called in and paid, and shall have priority over other debts due from the bank, and after the assets of the bank are exhausted, if they be not sufficient to pay all debts and liabilities, a further call shall be made on the stockholders in the bank for a further payment of capital, over and above the sum of one hundred dollars, of an amount equal to the deficiency, which shall be apportioned among all the shares of stock, and an order shall be made by the court for the payment by each shareholder of the sum or proportion due on his share of stock, and each shareholder shall pay the sum so assessed to him, severally, in proportion to his stock.

Bill-holders preferred creditors.

Stockholders further liable.

Order of the court.

SEC. 21. Be it further enacted, That the summary remedy in this act, given for settling up and closing the affairs of said bank, shall apply to the case of insolvency, but shall not be allowed in the case of a suspension of specie payment only by the bank, when and so long as such suspension shall be sanctioned by the general assembly, or by the governor of the state during the recess of the general assembly; but nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to deprive a creditor of said bank of his right to suit in any other appropriate mode of proceeding, or to prevent the general assembly from hereafter regulating, by a general law in relation to banking institutions, the mode of enforcing and satisfying the rights of creditors of said bank: Provided, that any bill holder shall have the right to move in any court having jurisdiction, or before any justice of the peace in the town or county in which the bank is located, as the case may require, for the collection of any bill the payment of which may be refused.

Remedy for closing not applicable to mere suspension.

Sec. 12. Be it further enacted, That either party may appeal to the next circuit court within thirty days after the assessment, by application to the clerk of said court, and giving security for the prosecution of such appeal, and in case the same is taken by the corporation for the judgment which may be rendered against it on appeal.

As to appeals.

Sec. 13. Be it further enacted, That the trial of such appeal shall be de novo, and if the corporation is the appellant and the damages assessed is equal to or greater than found on the previous inquest, the appellant must pay the costs and the court may award damages not exceeding ten per cent., if of opinion that the appeal was taken merely for delay.

Trial of appeals.

Sec. 14. Be it further enacted, That in case the appeal is not taken by the corporation, and the appellant does not recover more damages than was assessed to him in the previous inquest, judgment for costs must be given against him; in such appeals, when the judgment is against the appellant, execution may issue against his security.

Execution may issue.

Sec. 15. Be it further enacted, That the operations of said railroad company in surveying, locating and constructing the roads, or other work, shall in no wise be delayed on account of the proceedings had as aforesaid.

Operations of company not to be delayed.

Sec. 16. Be it further enacted, That whenever it shall be necessary for the construction of their railroad, branches or ways, to interdict or cross any stream or watercourse, or any road or highway, it shall be lawful for said company to construct across or upon the same; but the said company shall re-establish said stream or water course, road or highway, thus intersected, in such a manner as not to prevent passage thereon, and in all cases where any road or public highway is located, that said railroad and branch cannot be judiciously laid out and constructed across or upon the same without interfering therewith, in such case or cases said corporation may by their engineer cause such road or roads to be changed or altered in such manner that said railroad and branch may be made on the best site of ground for that purpose: Provided, said corporation shall put such road in as good repair as at the time of changing or altering the same.

Power as tolls.

SEC. 17. Be it further enacted, That the directory shall have full power to establish such rates of tolls for the conveyance of persons and property upon the railroad and branch as they shall from time to time deem proper, and to levy and collect the same for the use of said company; all matters and things respecting the use of said railroads and branch, and the conveyance of passengers and property, shall be in conformity to such rules and regulations as said board of directors shall from time to time determine.

May cross navigable waters.

SEC. 18. Be it further enacted, That the said Mobile and South-Western Railroad, and its branch, may cross the navigable waters of the Bay of Mobile, at one or more points, with bridges or any other description of work.

Right of way through public lands.

SEC. 19. Be it further enacted, That in case the said railroad and its branch should cross any of the lands belonging to the state of Alabama, the right of way through said lands, one hundred feet wide, is hereby granted for said railroad and branch to said company free of charge, and in case of cuttings and embankments, gravel earth, warehouses, engine houses or other necessary buildings, and of turn-outs, and as much more land as is necessary, is hereby granted free of charge.

Power to issue bonds.

SEC. 20. Be it further enacted, That for the purpose of raising funds, from time to time, for the construction for said rail road and its branch, and the purchase of iron and other materials to be used thereon, said company are hereby authorised to issue, negotiate, pledge, hypothecate and sell its bonds, in sums and at rates of interest which may be deemed most expedient by the board of directors, the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds to be secured as the board of directors may think best.

SEC. 21. Be it further enacted, That when any portion of the stock subscribed to said rail road company shall be called for, by the directions of the board of directors, and notice of said call shall have been given for more than thirty days, that such call has been made, and specifying the per centum of stock so called for, and the time when payment is required, either by personal notice to the stockholders, or by publication in some newspaper published in the city of Mobile, if any stockholder shall fail to pay the call so made at the time required, such stockholder may be proceeded against by a motion made in the circuit court of the county of the residence of said stockholder, for the amount of stock so remaining unpaid; which motion shall be in writing, signed by an attorney at law, and shall set forth the call so made, notice given, the amount of stock subscribed by said stockholder, and the amount remaining unpaid upon such stock so called for, and the term of the court at which the motion will be made; the sheriff of the county shall serve the notice and make his return thereon, and for his services shall be entitled to the same fees that are allowed sheriffs for like services in the execution of summons and complaints under the general law. The clerk shall docket the case in its proper order, and for his services in this case shall be allowed the same fees to which he is entitled for like services in other cases under the general law. If the motion so made is executed more than twenty days before the term of the circuit court to which it is returnable, the case shall stand for trial at the first term after its issuance; if executed within twenty days before such term, it shall not stand for trial until the next ensuing term of said court. All the rules of pleading and evidence applicable to actions of assumpsit, under the Code of Alabama, are applicable to proceedings under this section of this act, except that the certificates of the secretary of said company, accompanied with the seal of the company, shall be evidence of the organization of the company, of the by-laws, rules and regulations, and of the proceedings of the company, of the calls made, from time to time, by the action of the directors of the company, and of the amount subscribed to the stock thereof by any stockholder, and the amount due and unpaid on such subscription at the time such call was made or became due; and upon the production of such certificate, if no plea is entered by way of defense, or if the plea is withdrawn, the court hearing such motion, shall enter judgment final by default, or nil dicat, as the case may be, for the amount so certified to be due with interest thereon: such certificate shall be evidence on the trial of any issue joined upon such motion, unless the defendant makes oath at the time of filing his plea, that he believes the plea to be true, and gives notice that other evidence will be required; but in all cases the defendant may adduce lawful proof to contradict such certificate. All issues of fact joined upon such notice, are to be tried as other civil actions by jury.

Security for costs.

SEC. 22. Be it further enacted, That in all proceedings commenced under the provisions of this act, security for cost must be lodged with the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the suit is instituted, before such proceeding is commenced.

As to change of venue.

SEC. 23. Be it further enacted, That in all cases commenced under the provisions of section 21 of this act, either party may have a change of venue, to the nearest county free from exceptions, upon application made, and sufficient cause shown by affidavit, as in ordinary civil cases.

As to construction of road.

SEC. 24. Be it further enacted, That the Mobile and Southwestern Rail Road Company shall have full power to make all lawful agreements, or negotiations, with any other rail road company within or without the limits of this state, for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating a continuous rail road or rail roads from Mobile to New Orleans, in and through the states of Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana.

When to commence.

SEC. 25. Be it further enacted, That this company shall commence the construction of the rail road within three years from the date of the declaration of peace between the Confederate States and the United States of America, otherwise this charter shall be forfeited.

SEC. 26. Be it further enacted, That all laws contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

Upon Rail Road Transportation in the several States of the Confederacy.

WHEREAS the rail roads in the several States of our Confederacy were incorporated and built with reference to a system of free and rapid intercourse between them, designed to facilitate the business, as well as personal intercourse of their citizens: And whereas the blockade of the coasts of the several States, and the obstruction of the free navigation of many of our rivers by the enemy, has greatly crippled intercourse between the people of our States by the rivers, and have thus rendered the rail road system of more absolute necessity to our people: And whereas portions of the country have been blessed with a superabundance of provisions, and other necessities of life, while in others there is much scarcity, and an equalization of these bread necessities can only be made by means of our system of rail road transportation,

Be it therefore resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That while the government of the Confederate States is justified in using said rail roads, to the exclusion of all private transportation, when an immediate military necessity demands such use and exclusion, yet in the opinion of this general assembly, such exclusive military control of our said roads, should cease with the termination of such necessity, and that with such exception, the rail roads should be kept open to the business transportation of the people of the several States.

Be it further resolved, That the Governor be requested to corre pond with the Secretary of War, of the Confederate States, upon this subject, and that a copy of these resolutions be forwarded by him to the governors of the several States of the Confederacy.

Approved December 9, 1862.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

In relation to the liability of Militia officers of this State to enrollment under the Conscription Acts of the Confederate States.

Be it enacted resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That in the opinion of this general assembly, militia officers of this State, between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, are now subject to enrollment under the conscription acts of the Confederate States, unless exempt on some other ground than that they are militia officers.

2. Be it resolved further, That if there be any law of this State which has been, or may be construed to exempt such officers from the operation of said conscription acts, the same is hereby declared to be inoperative to that extent.

3. Be it resolved further, That his Excellency the Governor be, and he is hereby requested to transmit a copy of these resolutions to the Secretary of War of the Confederate States.

Approved November 25, 1862.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

In relation to the Defense of Mobile.

Whereas the abolition government at Washington, has been for the year last past, and is now straining every nerve, to consolidate its naval resources for the destruction of the sea-port towns of the cotton States, the consequent invasion of the homes and firesides of the interior, and the savage massacre of our helpless women and children : And whereas we, the representatives of the people of Alabama, inspired by the noble daring and the gallant and successful defense of the city of Vicksburg, by her indomitable citizen soldiery, would fain hope that the city of Mobile, our only seaport, and the gem of the gulf, shall never be desecrated by the polluting tread of our abolition foes,

Be it therefore resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That in the solemn judgment of this general assembly, the city of Mobile should never be surrendered; that it should be defended from street to street, from house to house, and inch by inch, until, if taken, the victor's spoils should be alone a heap of ashes.

Resolved, That the joint committee of Finance, the Senate concurring, be instructed forthwith to report a bill appropriating such sum of money as may be sufficient to defray the expenses for the removal and maintenance of the helpless women and children of the city of Mobile, to a place of safety.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded by the Governor to the military and naval commanders, for the defense of the city of Mobile, with the assurance that the people of Alabama will accept any calamity, rather than suffer her soil to be again polluted by the tread of the abolition invaders.

Approved November 17, 1862.

JOINT RESOLUTION

Requesting the Governor to give information in relation to debts due the State Bank and Branches.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That the Governor be, and he is hereby authorized and requested to lay before the next general assembly, during the first week of the same, a list of all the assets of every kind, including mortgages and deeds of trust, on real estate, yet due and held by the State Bank and its Branches, and further to state in said list the county in which said debts exist, and the location of the lands, &c.

Approved November 21, 1862.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

In relation to the war debt of the Confederate States.

Whereas, the government of the Confederate States is involved in a war for the independence of each of the States of the Confederacy, as well as for its own existence; and whereas the destiny of each State of the Confederacy is indissolubly connected with that of the Confederate government; and whereas the Confederate government cannot successfully prosecute the war to a speedy and honorable peace without ample means and credit, be it therefore Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That in the opinion of this generally assembly it is the duty of each State of the Confederacy, for the purpose of sustaining the credit of the Confederate government, to guarantee the debt of that government, in proportion to its representation in the congress of that government.

Resolved further, That the State of Alabama hereby proposes to her sister States of the Confederacy to guarantee said debt on said basis: Provided, that each of said States shall accept the proposition and adopt suitable legislation to carry it into effect, in which event these resolutions shall stand as the guaranty of this State for the aforesaid proportion of the debt of said Confederate government.

Resolved further, That his excellency, the governor, be and he is hereby requested to transmit a copy of these resolutions to the governor of each State of the Confederacy, and to the President of the Confederate States.

Approved December 1, 1862.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

Approving the payment of the Confederate War Tax by the Governor.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That the payment by the governor into the treasury of the Confederate States of the sum of two million of dollars, as the quota to be assessed upon certain property of the citizens of this State in the year 1861, and payable in 1862, subject to future adjustment, and the borrowing the amount of money necessary to pay the sum upon the 8 per cent. treasury bonds of this State, be and the same is hereby approved and confirmed, as though the same had been done when and after the amount of said tax had been ascertained in the mode prescribed by Congress, and the ten per cent. had previously been deducted therefrom.

Approved December 8, 1862.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

Of thanks to the Ladies of Alabama.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That the general assembly profoundly and gratefully impressed with the sense of the patriotic spirit, the ardent devotion, and the unremitting labors and sacrifices of the mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of the State, in providing for the comfort and wants of our gallant citizen soldiers, and by their smiles and tokens of approval, energising and perpetuating the "morale" of the host of our veteran defenders in the war, do hereby tender to them their own and the heartfelt thanks of the whole people of the State of Alabama.

Approved December 1, 1862.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

In relation to the Alabama Volunteers.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, 1st, that the thanks of this general assembly and through them the people of the State are hereby tendered to the Alabama soldiers, officers and privates in the Confederate army, for the heroic courage and valor displayed by them on every field of strife in which they have been engaged.

2. That this general assembly begs most sincerely to mingle its sympathy with the relatives and friends of those who have fallen in the service of their country, whether in battle or from disease, and that the executive authority be requested to collect the names of all such and have them transcribed in a suitable record book, designating the corps to which they belonged, their rank in the service, and cause of death, to be preserved among the archives of the State as a token of respect to their memories.

3. That the wives of those who have been made widows, and children orphans, by the fall of their husbands and fathers in defending their country against the invasion of a cruel and relentless enemy, are pre-eminently entitled to the kindest consideration, and it is the solemn duty of the State to make provision for the support of all those who are in indigent circumstances.

4. That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the commanding officer of the Alabama regiments and battalions, with the request that they be communicated to their respective commands.

Approved November 5, 1862.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

In relation to the payment of the first instalment of the fund appropriated for the support of indigent families, under the act approved November the 12th, 1862, to certain counties therein named.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That R. M. Patton, R. W. Walker, or either of them, be, and are hereby authorised to receive from the state treasury the amount of the first instalment which may be apportioned to the county of Lauderdale from the appropriation of the two millions of dollars, made by an act entitled "an act to provide for the support of the families of indigent soldiers in the army of the Confederate States from the State of Alabama."

Be it further resolved, That William M. Jackson be, and he is hereby authorised to receive the amount of said first instalment that may be apportioned to the county of Franklin; that J. B. Latham and J. B. Tally, or either of them, be and are hereby authorised to receive the amount of said first instalment that may be apportioned to the county of Jackson; that F. W. Sykes be and he is hereby authorised to receive the amount of said first instalment that may be apportioned to the county of Lawrence; that Thomas J. McClellan and J. P. Coman, or either of them, be and are hereby authorised to receive the amount of said first instalment that may be apportioned to the county of Limestone; that F. L. Hammond, S. D. Cabaniss, and Canada Butler, or either of them, be hereby authorised to receive the amount of said first instalment which may be apportioned to the county of Madison; that J. C. Orr be, and he is hereby authorised to receive the amount of said first instalment that may be apportioned to the county of Morgan; that W. M. Griffin be, and he is hereby authorised to receive the amount of said first instalment that may be apportioned to the county of Marshall; which several instalments shall be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Be it further resolved, That each and every party herein named shall, upon payment of the amount by them received under the provisions of these resolutions, to the judges of their respective counties, take receipts from the said judges for the several sums paid; which receipts shall be taken in duplicate, one copy of which shall be at once sent to the comptroller of the state, (and the other retained in case of miscarriage,) to be filed as vouchers for the payment of the instalments due the several counties.

Be it further resolved, That if in any case a new bond or increased security is required of any probate judge, no payment shall be made to such judge until such new bond or increased security is given as required.

Approved November 14, 1862.

JOINT RESOLUTION

To authorise H. C. McCall to draw the per diem of N. L. Brooks, a member of this House.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That N. L. Brooks, a member of the house of representatives of this state, who is absent from his seat by illness, be and he is hereby authorised to receive compensation for the time he served; and that H. C. McCall, of Lowndes county, be authorised to receive the compensation authorised by this resolution, and his receipt shall be a good voucher for such payment.

Approved December 6, 1862.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

For the relief of James A. M. Thompson, of Choctaw county.

Whereas, James A. M. Thompson, of Choctaw county, a member of the house of representatives of this state, has been absent from his seat since the twenty-first inst., with leave of this house, on account of bad health,

Be it therefore resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That James A. M. Thompson, a member of the house of representatives of this state, be and he is hereby authorised to receive his compensation for the time that he was present.

Be it further resolved, That John T. Foster, of Choctaw county, be authorised to receive the compensation authorised by these resolutions to be paid to the member mentioned in the foregoing resolutions, and his receipt therefor shall be a voucher for such payment.
